Career Options for Master of Museum Studies Graduates

A variety of career options are available for the Master of Museum Studies graduates, including the following:

Museum Studies PROGRAM Collections Interpretive Audience Manager Planner Community Research & Engagement Visitor Studies Museum Web/Social Lead Specialist Planning Media Specialist JOB TITLES Advisor Major Gifts Exhibitions Historical Lead Membership Consultant Researcher Assistant Coordinator Curator Education & Public Cultural Digitization Art & Programming Officer Policy Coordinator Collections Curator Director Consultant and many more in collections, research, conservation, exhibitions, interpretation and education, public programming and outreach, visitor services, project development, publishing, marketing, policy development departments ...

DEPARTMENTS WITHIN ORGANIZATIONS

within

TYPES OF ORGANIZATIONS

museums, galleries, cultural heritage sites, science centres, arts and culture associations, government organizations, consulting firms, universities, corporations, memorials, museum vendors, historic sites, exhibit designers, granting organizations, national parks, research companies, publishers ...

such as

ORGANIZATIONS

Royal Ontario Museum (ROM), Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Sport, the Museum of Modern Art (MoMA), Ontario Historical Society, Art Gallery of Ontario (AGO), City of Hamilton Museums, Canadian Museum of Civilization, Baycrest Health Sciences Center, Los Angeles County Museum of Art, National Gallery of Canada, Holocaust Resource Centre, Canadian Heritage Information Network, the Power Plant, McMichael Canadian Art Collection, the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, the Textile Museum of Canada, the Getty Institute, Design Exchange, University of Oregon, Children's Museum, City of Toronto, UNESCO World Heritage Centre, Luthuli Museum in Durban, South Africa ...

