

HELEN FERRIS AWARD

Master of Library and/or Information Studies
Application Form

The John M. Cuelenaere Public Library established the Helen Ferris Award in 1998, and offers it annually.

Applicants must be enrolled full-time in an ALA accredited Canadian graduate program of library and/or information sciences and be a resident of a city, town, village, rural municipality, or reserve located within the boundaries of the Wapiti Regional Library. Individuals may only receive the Helen Ferris award one time. Up to $2,000 is available for this bursary.

The deadline for applications is March 31, 2017.

Please return the completed application form and a letter expressing your interest in the Helen Ferris Award. Letters of interest should include a discussion of professional goals and areas of special interest, related work, and volunteer experience, plus any other relevant information.

Please send all applications as a PDF by email if possible. Applications will also be accepted by mail at the address below.
