congratulations!

Congratulations to our new graduates. The following information will assist you in your transition from iSchool student to iSchool alumna/alumnus.

stay current

iSCHOOL NETWORK ACCOUNTS

Upon graduation, your @mail.utoronto.ca email address automatically converts to an @alum.utoronto.ca email address. Messages sent to your @mail.utoronto.ca will be forwarded to your @alum.utoronto.ca for up to two years. To find out more about alumni email visit: <http://alumni.utoronto.ca/services/alumni-email>

Graduating students who require building and room access after convocation because they are conducting research for, or are employed by, the Faculty should email Glen Menzies, Facilities Coordinator, at glen.menzies@utoronto.ca

RETURNS AND RETRIEVALS

- Return all library items you have checked out in order to avoid fines.
- Resolve outstanding library fines in person at the Robarts Loan Services desk or online at <https://payfines.library.utoronto.ca/>

BORROWING PRIVILEGES

U of T Library borrowing privileges, including Inforum borrowing privileges, will expire after convocation. To find out the date of expiration, contact U of T Library or Inforum staff. To extend your borrowing privileges, purchase a U of T alumni card, <http://uoft.me/alumniservices>

After September 2016, iSchool alumni may also register for an Inforum borrowing card, <http://current.ischool.utoronto.ca/services/borrowing>

stay connected

FACULTY OF INFORMATION ALUMNI ASSOCIATION (FIAA)

The Faculty of Information Alumni Association (FIAA) comprises nearly 6,700 graduates of the iSchool. Graduates automatically become FIAA members. FIAA members receive invitations to all alumni events such as Spring Reunion and the OLA SuperConference reception, notice of the annual magazine, Informed, as well as a monthly e-newsletter during the academic year. To learn more about FIAA activities, or to volunteer for our Ask an Alum program, visit <http://ischool.utoronto.ca/alumni>

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND EDUCATION

Through a partnership between the iSchool and the University of Toronto School of Continuing Studies (SCS), SCS administers courses offered by the iSchool Institute (formerly the Professional Learning Centre). For a list of courses and alumni benefits offered by SCS, visit their website at <http://learn.utoronto.ca>

JOB SITE & CAREER SERVICES

Looking for a job? The Faculty of Information manages a job board you might want to check out. To view our Canada-wide job listings or to place a job notice, visit <http://current.ischool.utoronto.ca/jobsite>

Recent graduates can continue to take advantage of career services offered at the iSchool. For details, visit <http://current.ischool.utoronto.ca/career-services>
